

Northwest Indiana Chapter

National Hook-Up of Black Women, Inc.

Presents

Over-the-Moon Ovations!

*Celebrating the Stories and Capturing the History of African-American Women
Over 50 in Northwest Indiana.*

Help a Parent. Save a Child.®

CELEBRATE PARENTING
APRIL IS PARENTING AWARENESS MONTH INDIANA!

SNHBW.
Sisters

Mrs. Hazel A. Kimble
Arts and Culture Chairperson
Event Director

Ms. Laura Smith-Wynn
NWI Chapter President

Ms. Janice Ford
1st Vice President Programs

Mrs. Brenda Dillon-Moore
2nd Vice President
Membership

Ms. Dorothy Moore
Secretary

Ms. Tavia Black
Treasurer

Ms. Kathy Battiste
Scholarship Chair

Ms. Deborah Punkins
40 & Under Coordinator

DUBOIS LIBRARY AUDITORIUM

1835 Broadway, Gary, Indiana

Saturday, April 18, 2009

1:30 pm to 4:00 pm

Featuring "Over-the-Moon" performances in music, dance, culture, art, and storytelling.

JOIN US! OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

ABOUT US.

The National Hook-Up of Black Women, Inc. is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization established in 1973. NHBW, Inc. advocates for the health and wellbeing of women and families at the grassroots level through local chapters in communities across the United States. For more information about the NWI Chapter of NHBW, Inc. visit our website at www.nhbw-indiana.com.

Parenting Awareness Month Indiana and Help a Parent. Save a Child are public awareness initiatives formed collaborative with the Indiana Parenting Institute, Inc., a 501(c)3 nonprofit parent education organization, and LoveFeast COGIC of Gary, Indiana in 2007. To learn more about PAMI, go to www.indianaparentinginstitute.com.